Crossing Borders

-- Blurring Borders

March 27 - April 24, 2015

Monday - Friday, 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

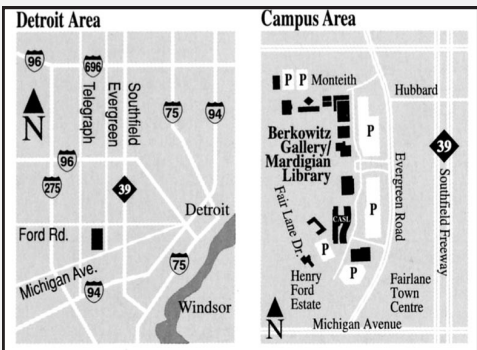

Reception: March 27th, 5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

through the works of Ursula Hübner

The Austrian artist Ursula Hübner presents permeable bodies and identities en miniature in her pictures from the series "The World of Interiors," which demand intellectual and emotional reactions from the viewer. With examples of her stage designs, she shares with us how an artist works within the confines of a text, a director's vision, and a predetermined space.

The artist will give a lecture at the reception entitled: "Bodily Obsessions: The History of Austrian Painting via Egon Schiele, Maria Lassnig, Ursula Hübner, and Other Affinities"

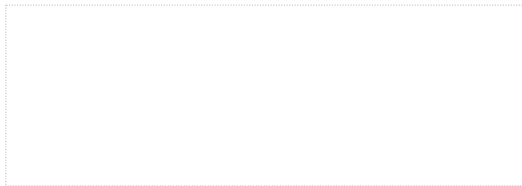

Front image: "Golden Nature," mixed media on wood, 2006 by Ursula Hübner

Reception is free to the public. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and drinks provided featuring Grüner Veltliner (Austrian white wine), California red, and Michigan beer.

The Alfred Berkowitz Gallery is located on the third floor of the Mardigian Library at the University of Michigan- Dearborn.
